

Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions to show free politically biased stories under the banner of saying that this news is a breach of the public trust given to them.

This is a prime case that shows the need for more local control of stations and less consolidation of media.

Sinclair's plan to show biased media in a charged election atmosphere demonstraes the need to strengthen media ownership rules.

Please give these issues consideration.